Concerning the occasion of Brandon's 125th celebration, A good time was had by all!

When plans are made for a celebration such as the 125th anniversary of a town's founding, there is much to do with little guarantee that everything will work out just right, including the weather.

Whatever the reason, the Brandon celebration marking the milestone of 125 years went off wonderfully with each event well planned and coordinated.

From the crowd that gathered for the dedication of the Brandon Auditorium to the lawnchairs set up for the presentation of "Hansel and Gretel", things could not have gone better.

The icon of Brandon, the auditorium, was given a ceremony fit for such a grand, old building Aug. 1. The crowd was a large one and recognition was given to the members of the Brandon American Legion and Fire Department who were on hand.

There were many speakers who took to the podium to tell the history of the building and for some they had lived that history in having their commencement there or attending dances. For one individual, Bob Coates, he related memories of when he was 11 years old and worked in the gravel pit that supplied building materials for the auditorium.

The dedication of the Edgefield Cemetery was a solemn ceremony that also brought out a good number of people who wanted to be on hand for the occasion. Bud Greenquist probably put it best when he said in his remarks: "How many people are buried here? Only God knows. How many veterans are buried here? Only God knows."

The site where those people rest was dedicated with dignity and will now be a place for contemplation amongst the trees, grass and rocks.

The afternoon of Aug. 2 saw quite a bit of color added to the Brandon Auditorium as it was the site of an area-wide Red Hatter's Summer Fling.

Chippewa Park was a crowded place the evening of Aug. 2 as over 300 people showed up for a pork chop dinner that provided a great opportunity to eat and sit talking with friends, neighbors and relatives.

This year's Grand Marshals of the Brandon Mid-Summerfest parade were Marlene and Bill Lund.

Lions Park helped fill the day Aug. 3 with the pageant that evening at 7 p.m. Many former members of the Summerfest royal court showed up for the 20th crowning of Miss Mid-Summerfest.

Friday was a big day at the school as hundreds returned to walk the halls and catch up on the lives of fellow classmates. A buffet dinner the evening of the all-school reunion drew over 600 people.

That evening, John and Karen Lund's barn was the place to be as over 500 people came and had a good time dancing and talking and when it was over, the visitors did a great job of cleaning up after themselves.

As the morning of Aug. 5 arrived it was time to get ready for a big day.

Chairs began appearing along the parade route early

The halls of the Brandon School were full of alumni Aug. 4 as part of the all-school reunion.

Auditions set for PWP's 'Everyone Loves Opal'

Fall is just around the corner and it's time to start thinking about how to spend your time. One great option would be to audition for a play. You are invited to audition for Prairie Wind Players upcoming adult comedy. This fall PWP is presenting a hilarious comedy by John Patrick, "Everyone Loves Opal", directed by Paul Schoenack, Glenwood. Schoenack's directing experience includes two productions at the Alexandria Area Arts Association Theatre.

Auditions are Monday & Tuesday, August 21 & 22 from 7-9 p.m. at Roosevelt Hall in Barrett. There will be a cast meeting either Aug. 24 or 25, with a read thru of the play. Blocking rehearsals will begin the following week with a break for the Labor Day weekend.

Performance dates are Thursday, Oct. 12 through Sunday, Oct. 15 with dinner theatre on Friday & Saturday nights, and a Sunday matinee. Rehearsals will be during the month of September and the first two weeks of October.

The cast of Opal includes two women and four men. All of the parts are great characters. These parts are lots of fun to act!

Opal, a middle aged junk collector who always sees the bright side of life, age 40 and up (no age is too old).

Gloria, a ditzy younger woman with more looks than brains, age 40 and down.

Doctor, smaller part, conducts a hilarious insurance interview (1 scene), any age is fine.

Sheriff, a smaller part, keeps an eye on Opal for her own protection, younger man, age 40 and under.

Bradford, a middle aged, overweight (could wear a fat suit), incompetent crook age 30 and up.

Professor Solomon, the brains of the operation (if he's not drinking) egocentric scholar that can't get a job teaching because of his attitude & behavior, age 30 and up.

Plot; Opal lives on the edge of town, near the dump in a rundown old house. She collects junk and sells it for a living. A small gang of incompetent crooks on the run from the law discover Opal's home. They hide out there and set up shop manufacturing illegal perfume. They decided that she would be worth more to them dead than alive and take out an insurance policy on her. However, they can't seem to get anything right!

Letter to the editor

To the editor:

Many of us have just experienced a wonderful week of activities, memories and events surrounding the Brandon 125th Anniversary.

I want to thank each and every person who contributed to these days. It was great fun coming to Brandon and joining with so many others. Wherever we looked and wherever we went, there was something fun to see, remember and enjoy.

So often we look for ways to make our local cities safer and healthier. Coming together as we did, with pride in our community, school, history and heritage only helps to create a more loving and enriching atmosphere for all residents and citizens.

Thank you for modelling such an outstanding effort at community building...an example for our future generations. Congratulations to the committee and endless volunteers!

Sarah's Recipes

By Sarah Tweeter

Hello again. Summer is really here with hot weather like we haven't seen for many years. We all still have to eat and do not like the stove on too long so I found a few entrees and salads that are easy to make.

Crock Pot All Day Chicken Casserole

- 1/2 c. dry navy beans
- 1 1/2 to 2 lbs. chicken pieces, skin removed
- 3/4 c. sodium reduced tomato juice
- 1/2 c. chopped celery
- 1/2 c. sliced carrot
- 1/2 c. chopped onion
- 1 clove garlic minced
- 1 bay leaf
- 1 tsp. instant beef boullion granules

- 1/2 tsp. dried basil, crushed
- 1/2 tsp. dried sage, crushed
- 1 tsp. dry oregano
- 1/4 tsp. paprika

Cook the beans the night before. Rinse beans. In a medium saucepan combine beans and 2 cups of water. Bring to boiling. Boil it uncovered for 10 minutes. Drain. Add 2 more cups of water. Return to boiling, then reduce heat and simmer for 1 1/2 hours or until tender. Drain and chill. The next morning in a slow cooker, combine beans, chicken pieces, sodium reduced tomato juice, celery, carrots, onion, garlic, bay leaf, boullion granules, basil, oregano, sage and paprika. Cover and cook on low-heat setting for 8 to 10 hours. Remove and discard the bay leaf. Makes 4 servings.

Cucumber Tuna Boats

- 3 medium cucumbers
- 1 can (6 oz.) tuna flaked
- 2 hard cooked eggs, chopped
- 1/2 c. shredded cheddar cheese
- 1/2 c. chopped celery
- 1/4 c. mayonnaise or salad dressing
- 2 tbsp. sweet pickle relish
- 1 tbsp. finely chopped onion
- 1 tsp. lemon juice
- 1/2 tsp. salt

Cut cucumbers in half lengthwise. Remove and discard the seeds. Cut a thin slice from the bottom of cucumbers if necessary for them to lay flat. In a bowl, combine the remaining ingredients. Spoon the mixture into cucumbers. Serve immediately. Yield 3 servings.

Nutty Carrot Salad

- 2 c. shredded carrots
- 1 can (8 oz.) crushed pineapple, drained
- 1/4 to 1/2 c. plumped raisins
- 1/4 to 1/2 c. sunflower kernels
- 1/4 c. salted peanuts
- 1/4 c. peanut butter
- 1/4 c. vanilla yogurt
- 1/4 c. mayonnaise
- 1/8 tsp. salt
- Pepper to taste
- Lettuce leaves

In a bowl, toss the carrots, pineapple, raisins, sunflower kernels and peanuts. In a small bowl, combine the peanut butter, yogurt, mayonnaise and salt. Mix well. Pour over carrot mixture, stir to coat. Serve in a lettuce-lined bowl. Yield 4 servings.

Tomatoes & Vinagrette

- 3 tbsp. vinegar

- 3 tbsp. vegetable oil
 - 2 tbsp. sugar
 - 1 tsp. seasoned salt
 - pepper to taste
 - 2 medium tomatoes, cut into wedges
 - Lettuce leaves
- In a jar with a tight fitting lid, combine vinegar oil, sugar, seasoned salt and pepper. Shake well and serve over tomatoes and lettuce. 2 servings.

Fruited Lemon Gelatin Salad

- 1 large pkg. (6 oz.) lemon gelatin
 - 2 c. boiling water
 - 1 can (12 oz.) lemon-lime soda
 - 1 can (20 oz.) crushed pineapple
 - 1 can (15 oz.) mandarin oranges, drained
 - 2 cups halved green grapes
 - 1 egg
 - 1/2 c. sugar
 - 2 tbsp. flour
 - 1 tbsp. butter or margarine
 - 1 c. whipping cream, whipped
 - Lettuce leaves, optional
- Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Stir in soda. Refrigerate until partially set. Drain pineapple, reserving juice. Set the pineapple aside. Add water if necessary to pineapple juice to make 1 c. Set aside. Stir pineapple, oranges and grapes into gelatin. Pour into a 9 by 13 by 2 inch dish. Refrigerate. In a saucepan over medium heat, combine egg, sugar, flour, butter and reserved pineapple juice. Bring to boil, cook and stir for 2 minutes until thickened. Cool completely. Fold in whipped cream. Spread over gelatin. Refrigerate until firm. Cut into squares. Serve on lettuce if desired. Yields 15-18 servings.

Stay cool and remember: more truth is found in digging for facts than in jumping to conclusions.

Notice of Hearing on Proposed Assessment, Brandon August 7, 2006

Notice is hereby given that the council will meet at 7:00 p.m. on August 23, 2006 at the Brandon Community Center/Senior Center to consider, and possibly adopt, the proposed assessment for Lots 1 through 8, Block One, Deere Run Estates and Lots 1 through 7, Block Two, Deere Run Estates, by street, curb and gutter, water, sewer and storm sewer. Adoption by the council of the proposed assessment against abutting property may occur at the hearing.

Such assessment is proposed to be payable in equal annual installments extending over a period of 15 years, the first installments to be payable in accordance to your tax statement beginning in the year 2007, and will bear interest at the rate of 6.5% per annum starting from the date the resolution is passed. To each subsequent installment when due shall be added interest for one year on all unpaid installments.

You may at any time prior to certification of the assessment to the county auditor (November 25), pay the entire assessment on such property to the City Clerk. No interest shall be charged if the entire assessment is paid prior to certification. You may at any time thereafter, pay to the City Clerk the entire amount of the assessment remaining unpaid, with interest accrued to December 31 of the year in which such payment is made. Such payment must be made before November 25 or interest will be charged through December 31 of the succeeding year. If you decide not to prepay the assessment before the certification date of November 25, the rate of interest that will apply is 6.5% per year. The right to partially prepay the assessment according to Ordinance No. 303.11 is available.

The proposed assessment roll is on file for public inspection at the city clerk's office. The total amount of the proposed assessment is $483,026.94. Written or oral objections will be considered at the meeting. No appeal may be taken as to the amount of an assessment unless a written objection signed by the affected property owner is filed with the municipal clerk prior to the assessment hearing or present to the presiding officer at the hearing. The council may upon such notice consider any objection to the amount of a proposed individual assessment at an adjourned meeting upon such further notice to the affected property owners as it deems advisable.

The owner may appeal an assessment to district court pursuant to Minn. Stat. 429.081 by serving notice of the appeal upon the mayor or clerk of the city within 30 days after the adoption of the assessment and filing such notice with the district court within 10 days after service upon the mayor or clerk.

Debra Grommesh, Brandon City Clerk.

Brandon Auditorium dedication ceremony involves many Hilda Bettermann was the emcee for the dedication ceremony.

Giving the invocation was Pastor Tony Stockman of the Chippewa Lutheran Church.

Members of the Brandon American Legion Post No. 278 were recognized during the ceremony.

Sen. Knute Nelson, a.k.a. Gary Lund, President of the Douglas County Historical Society, spoke at the dedication.

Bob Coates spoke of how he helped his grandfather work in the gravel pit which supplied materials for the construction of the hall.

The members of the Brandon Fire Department were recognized at the dedication for their contribution and service to the community.

This plaque is located near the entrance to the auditorium.

A large crowd attended the dedication.

Left to right: District 11A Representative Torrey Westrom, Douglas County District 1 Commissioner Jerry Johnson, Douglas County Sheriff Bill Ingebrigtsen and Brandon Police Chief Dave Ahlquist each took a turn at the microphone to offer their congratulations to the city as well as to share thoughts and memories of the building.

"Voices of Joy" from Seven Dolers Church in Millerville provided the music during the dedication.

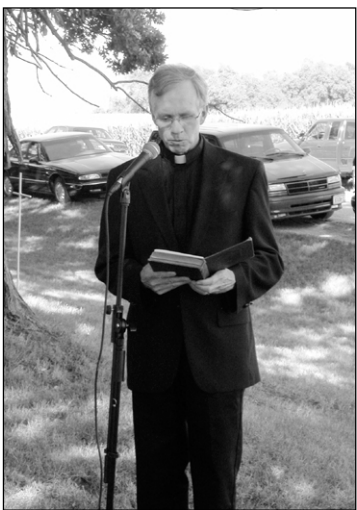

Dedication of Edgefield Cemetery honors those buried there

Brandon American Legion Post No. 278 Commander Charles Foslien read what each fold of the flag stands for.

Brandon American Legion members Bob Reynolds, left, and Bud Greenquist folded the flag while the meaning of each fold was read aloud.

Pastor Dennis Preston of Grace Lutheran Church in Brandon, read from the Bible and also led the singing during the dedication.

Jim Korkowski read the history of the cemetery as well as what is written on a plaque that was placed at the site in December 2005.

Bob Piotrowski presented taps at the dedication.

The crowd which gathered for the dedication at Edgefield Cemetery sought out shade to escape the heat of the day while listening to the speakers at the ceremony.

An area Red Hatters program was held Aug. 2 at the Brandon Auditorium as part of the city's 125th celebration. The event drew a good crowd with representatives from many clubs in the area.

Queen Mother of the Brandon Red Hatters, Marcia Bolin, welcomed everyone to the Red Hat event.

The line was long leading up to the serving area of the family pork chop feed held Aug. 2 at Chippewa County Park.

Kirstian Morgan entertained the crowd during the Aug. 3 picnic at Lions Park. She performed original songs she wrote herself.

The lawn chairs were out and the picnic tables were full as people enjoyed a slightly cooler day than the pervious ones during the family pork chop feed.

Shade was the place to be as the music was enjoyed at the Lions Park picnic.

This year's Miss Mid-Summerfest contestants and the 2005 royalty performed a dance number as part of this year's pageant held Aug. 3.

Former Mid-Summerfest royalty were plentiful at this year's pageant. They helped out with the event in many ways, including serving the cake and refreshments during intermission.

Julie (Bahe) Blanche, 1987 Queen, helped with the emcee duties.

Leah Christopherson, 2002 Queen, was part of the emcee team for the pageant.

2001 1st Attendant Janell Suchy, left, and 1987 1st Attendant Jennifer Starke White, took their turns at the podium during the pageant.

Samantha Schmitt during the 80s Style Show.

Breanna VanAlphen during the evening gown presentation.

Tiffany Lund and her entry in the 80's Style Show.

Brittany Meissner in her evening gown.

Brandon alumni Joe Korkowski, left, and Paul Starke, entertained the crowd gathered for the all-school reunion Aug. 4 during a brief program.

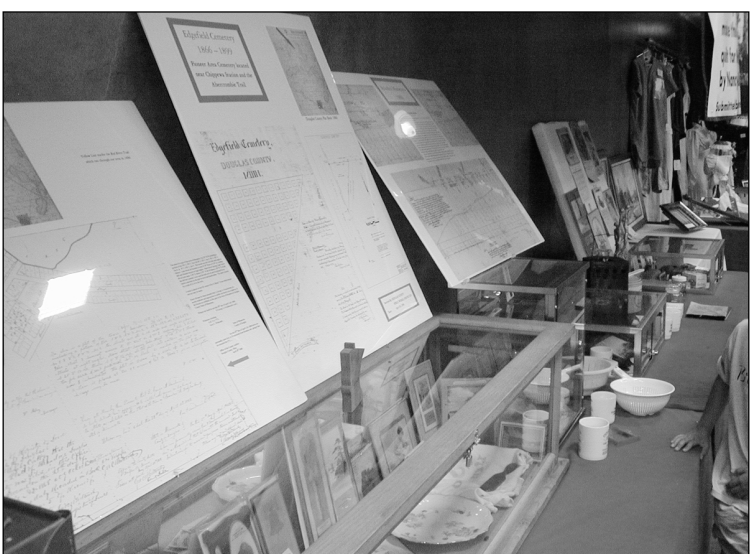

Former Brandon School students and present and past staff filled the bleachers and chairs on the gym floor for a short program during the all-school reunion.

Brandon Superintendent Mark Westby, left, formally accepted the Brandon Lions Les Anderson Scholarship plaque for the school. Presenting the plaque was Don Bakken, former Brandon High School principal. The plaque lists the recipients of the scholarship and is displayed in the entryway of the school.

The barn dance Aug. 5 at John and Karen Lund's farm was a big hit with over 500 people attending throughout the evening.

The walls of the Brandon Auditorium were filled with memorabilia as part of the Brandon History Center.

Books filled with information on Brandon's history were perused by thousands at the History Center in the auditorium.

Kinsley Randt and Malorie Koep held the banner marking the beginning of the grand parade.

Members of the Brandon American Legion Post and Ashby American Legion Post handled the colors for the parade.

Brandon Mayor Doug Johnson.

The Brandon Community Club float.

Brandon American Legion Post No. 278 Grand Marshals Linda and Lydon Sletto.

The Brandon Red Hat Club's float.

Brandon American Legion Auxiliary 2006 Girls Stater Jocelyn Olson.

Brandon graduate Sarah Severson sang the National Anthem at the start of the parade.

Supporters of Mark Meuwissen, who is running for Douglas County Auditor/Treasurer.

Republican Representative District 11A incumbent and candidate Torrey Westrom and his family in the parade.

Douglas County Sheriff candidate Dave Ahlquist's parade entry.

Republican-endorsed candidate for Senate District 11, Bill Ingebrigtsen greeted parade watchers.

Douglas County Sheriff candidate Brad Brejcha handed out stickers during the parade.

DFL Senate District 11 incumbent and candidate Dallas Sams in the parade.

Douglas County Sheriff candidate Tom Jacobson.

DFL-endorsed candidate for Representative District 11A Brian Boeddeker walked the parade route.

Vern Lorsung, candidate for Douglas County Auditor/Treasurer.

Douglas County Sheriff candidate Ralph Bradley.

Alexandria Beetles mascot Ringo was mobbed by adoring young fans during the parade.

Katie Simonet wearing a dress owned by her great-great grandmother. The 100-year-old dress was last in a Brandon parade 50 years ago.

Douglas County Sheriff candidate Troy Wolbersen.

The Brandon High School Class of 1966.

The Brandon Lions Chicken Feed kept the tables full at Lions Park.

A large crowd attended the Community Church Service Aug. 6 at the Brandon School.

Dennis Stramer, of St. Ann's Church of Brandon, read one of the Scripture passages during the Community Worship Service.

A busy week ended with a presentation of "Hansel and Gretel" at Lions Park. The play was performed by The Theatre L'Homme Dieu Travelling Troupe. Over 100 people attended the performance.

Hear's What's Happenin'

Geri Burros - 948-2497

Ferlene Kniss - 948-2647

Mrs. Gordon Howe, Alexandria, son Jim, Houston TX and Mike Howe, Glenwood treated their aunt Mary Tetzlaff, to dinner at Ruby's in Ashby on Wednesday, July 26. Later visited Leo Howe at the nursing home. Leo was thrilled with the visit.

Ivy Anderson, Barrett, entertained Donna Johnson, Audrey Lerum, Mary Tetzlaff of Evansville, and several other friends at Elk Lodge to celebrate her 60th birthday.

An open-house, Saturday, July 22, honored Elnora Godwin on her 90th birthday. (Longevity!) Family attending were from Knoxville, Texas, LaCross, Wisconsin, Bemedji, Eagle Bend, Gull Lake, Henning, Montevideo, and Ashby plus friends from New Brighton, Brooklyn Center and Evansville. We wish this lady a very Happy Birthday!

Marian Reine celebrated her birthday, Friday, July 28 in the Southview dining room. Guests included, Irene Enderson, Erdahl, Bernie Olson and Brenda Risbrudt, Ashby, Gloria Rezac, Breckenridge, Madeline Anderson, Barrett, and Chris Lindquist, Champlain, and friends from Southview. It was a fun-filled afternoon.

Nancy Griese, Aurora, SD was a guest of her niece, Janice and Lyle Olson the week of July 24. Nancy visited Dorothy Kammerer a couple days and the two women gave the keyboard, piano and organ a workout. They played for the Southview residents on Tuesday and the Crestview residents, Thursday.

The Southview residents are such an active and important part of our community. We are saddened to hear that the owners of Southview have given notice that they are converting all the apartments into an assisted living complex and increasing the rent on all units by 75 percent whether or not the residents should need assistive living. This increase takes effect October 1.

Galea Jacobson and Nathan spent the first week in August visiting Harlan & Geri Burros. The things that Nathan enjoyed the most was watching the hunting dogs being trained at Dale & Corrine Stinton's and when Paul Lundeen graciously offered us a tour of his unusual "elevator home". In fact, Nathan told his mother that if anything ever happened to her, "I'm going to go live with Paul." Should we warn Mr. Lundeen?

Last week at Long Lake

Lodge, someone noticed a tiny toad sitting in the corner. When they went to remove it, it was found to be a "fake". Someone had left a little pet for Carol Johnson who is known for her aversion to wee toads!

A group of about 25 local folks attended the race at Cedar Lakes the weekend of August 5-6. It's an annual event for them so they must enjoy it.

"What's Happenin'" at your house? We'd love to know.

West Douglas County Area History

By Bud Greenquist

News items reprinted from the Brandon Echo.

More news from February 20, 1908: Angela Bohmer dead. Angela Bohmer, a sister of Jacob Tamble, after much suffering died Saturday evening, February 8th.

She was born in Triers, Germany, December 19, 1865, came to America 1880 and 1886 married Joseph Bohmer of Melrose, who died 1889 leaving her with a young son. After that time she spent most of her time with her parents at St. Joe, until their death when she and a younger brother bought out the other heirs.

She began suffering very much last fall and then had an operation performed. But this did not give the desired relief and finally death came as a welcome relief from long suffering. She leaves a son 20 years old.

The funeral took place from St. Joe Tuesday 11, 9 o'clock in the forenoon.

The apron social given in Dist. 72 last Saturday night was very well attended and a neat little sum of $32.85 which will go towards furnishings for the schoolhouse. Miss Manda Rosengren is teaching in this district. Quite a number from Brandon took advantage of the beautiful evening and drove out.

News from February 27, 1908: Saturday morning the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. William Meisner died from the effects of pneumonia. The funeral took place Sunday and the remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery.

Change in Hardware Firm - J. C. Peterson of the hardware firm Knutson and Peterson, has sold his interest in the firm to his partner T. Knutson who will take his sons into partnership and the firm name will be Knutson & Sons. Mr. Peterson is yet undecided as to his future movements but will stay here for a month or two.

Mrs. Sophia Fagre Dead - Wednesday of last week, Mrs. Sophie Fagre, at the age of fifty-seven, died at her home east of Evansville. The cause of her death was lung fever. The funeral was held Monday from the Norwegian church. Rev. Sattre officiating. She was beloved and respected by all and the funeral was largely attended by her numerous friends showing her the last token of respect. Besides her husband, Johannes Fagre, she leaves four daughters all of whom are married and living in Dakota, and three sons, Ole, Hans and Peter. They were all at home for the funeral. The bereaved family have the sympathy of a host of friends.

as people staked out their territory so as to have a good vantage point to watch the entries in the parade roll by.

And as the minutes ticked by toward the appointed time to begin, there were hundreds and hundreds of people lined up on the streets ready to witness one of the best parades in the area.

They were not disappointed as over 135 units made their way along the route.

After the parade, it was time to take in the craft show, visit the petting zoo, attend the Grace Lutheran salad luncheon, grab a bite at the 4-H lunch stand in the auditorium, or just take a break.

The Brandon History Center was located in the auditorium throughout the celebration and had to extend its schedule to include a few hours on Aug. 6 because of the demand by people to view the excellent display of items from Brandon's history.

The Lion's Chicken Feed was once again a huge success with full tables, long lines and great tasting food.

The annual street dance drew a crowd as usual and was a great way to end a busy day.

The breakfast buffet at St. Ann's Catholic Church Aug. 6 kept the workers hopping as several hundred took in the eating opportunity.

Volleyball and softball tournaments kept the fields and courts busy Saturday and Sunday.

With most of the events in the past, the weekend finished with a delightful re-telling of the "Hansel and Gretel" story in the Lions Park with the Theatre L'Homme Dieu Traveling Troupe doing an excellent job of entertaining the young and old who showed up.

With all the great memories of this past weekend, it is important to keep in mind the events did not just happen but were the result of dozens of people taking their time and talent in putting them together for the enjoyment of many.

All in all, the City of Brandon should be proud of the events which took place to commemorate the city's 125th birthday because it was as close to perfect a celebration as could be desired and there are many, many people to thank for that.

READY TO PERFORM
Kids from all over Grant County have been rehearsing for their upcoming play "The Boy Who Became A Tree" by Owen Heibeg. Performances are August 11 and 12 at 7:30 p.m. and August 13 at 2 p.m. at Roosevelt Hall, Barrett. It's been a great way to spend their summer, especially since the theatre has air conditioning.
